Christine Lloyd is a smart lady. You need a smart realtor on your side especially when you're a first-time buyer. She watched out for me and was right about so many things that affected my decision of how, when, and where to buy. When it came down to the line at the end, she pushed the right people at the right time in the right way to follow through on their responsibilities to make this whole complicated process flow as smoothly as it could. I highly recommend her as a real estate agent who gets the job done. Thanks Christine!
